Medicare and Planning for Long-Term Care

This educational course will teach you everything that you need to know about Medicare and how to determine the best options for your current situation. This course will remove all the confusion about the different parts of Medicare, what it does and does not cover, and clearly explain the upcoming changes to Medicare and how they will affect you. Whether you are currently on Medicare or about to begin your benefits, this course will provide you with valuable information you need to know. In addition, most people over age 65 will need some type of long-term care, with a significant number of people needing care in a nursing home. In this multitopic course, you learn what long term care is and where it's provided, as well as strategies to pay for long-term care.

WHAT YOU WILL LEARN;

- Get the facts about what Medicare does and does not cover
- Learn the differences between parts A, B, C, and D
- Understand the costs for each part
- Which Medicare supplement is right for you
- Know the difference between Medicare and Medicaid
- Medicare Advantage plans explained
- Latest changes to Medicare and Social Security and how they affect your benefits
- What long-term care is and where it's provided
- Strategies to pay for long-term care
- Key features and government incentives for long-term care insurance
- How Medicare and Medicaid factor into long-term care planning

Classroom instruction will be by Eli Mizrahi, AFEA Puget Sound, Washington Chapter, who has 30 years of experience in the financial services industry. He brings "real world" experience to the classroom, conveying the subject matter effectively by including illustrations of real-life scenarios that make the content easier to understand. This session will cover one of the most relevant and challenging questions faced by Americans today.
