5th Avenue Theatre

2017–2018 Season Tickets

Season tickets include free parking and all fees, plus free ticket exchange up to 24 hours in advance. Shows include:

Something Rotten!—Set in the 1590s, two brothers set out to write the world's first musical after a soothsayer foretells that the future of theater involves singing, dancing, and acting.

Ragtime—It's the turn of the century; everything is changing. Set in the volatile melting pot of New York City, three distinct American stories are woven together: an upper-class wife, a determined Jewish immigrant, and a daring, young Harlem musician are united by their desire and belief in a brighter tomorrow.

Irving Berlin's Holiday Inn—This a wonderful new musical is inspired by the Oscar-winning film and features lavish sets and costumes, spectacular choreography, and 20 Irving Berlin songs. Jim leaves the bright lights of show business to settle down on a farm, but he finds the simple life is not as simple as he thought.

Intermission! The Musical!—Jerry Zucker, the master of wacky comedies including cinematic sensations Airplane! and The Naked Gun, directs this story of two dim-witted brothers who receive an e-mail claiming that money has been left to them by a relative they never knew. They each fall in love, get caught up in a military coup, join a band of revolutionaries, and have to save the country.

Ride the Cyclone—At 8:17 p.m., the Saint Cassian High School Chamber Choir boards the Cyclone roller coaster. At 8:19, they meet their tragic demise. Trapped in carnival-like purgatory, the recently deceased discover a mechanical fortune-teller who invites them to tell their stories of life interrupted, with the promise of a prize like no other.

Kiss Me, Kate—This Tony Award-winning masterpiece set the standard for great musicals and then broke the mold. This sparkly sensation is, at its core, a true battle of the sexes.

The Hunchback of Notre Dame—A retelling of Victor Hugo's masterpiece, this tale of love, faith, and prejudice will leave you spellbound. Its lush score features songs from the Disney animated feature and new music from legendary composers Alan Menken and Stephen Schwartz, unlike anything in musical theater today.

Lend Me a Tenor

In this hilariously fun Broadway sensation, a meek and unassuming opera house assistant must save the day when a series of screwball mishaps befall the Cleveland Grand Opera’s biggest night.

In September 1934, the Cleveland Grand Opera Company is primed to welcome world-famous Tito Morelli, II Stupendo, the greatest tenor of his generation. Undergoing trials of virtue, discretion, and charity, the duo realize that all may not be as it seems in this magical land. The Drowsy Chaperone

Winner of five Tony Awards, including Best Book of a Musical and Best Original Score, this delightfully madcap send-up of the Jazz Age features one show-stopping song-and-dance number after another.

An affectionate tribute to American musical comedy of the 1920s, Drowsy Chaperone is the story of a middle-aged, antisocial musical theater fan who plays the record of his favorite musical, the 1928 hit The Drowsy Chaperone. The show comes to life onstage as he wryly comments on the music, story, and actors.

Pictures at an Exhibition

La Source is Balanchine at his most elegant—a perfect aperitif.

You'll smell the perfume in this sublime work originally created for Violette Verdy. Opus 19 is a darker work by Jerome Robbins originally created for Mikhail Baryshnikov. It is also a work I danced for most of my career, working closely with Robbins in the studio. It's an emotional and physical marathon with enormous rewards for audience and artist alike.

Our final ballet is by Alexei Ratmansky (Don Quixote, Concerto DSCH), a man as humble as he is talented. Mussorgsky's Pictures at an Exhibition is paired with Wassily Kandinsky's vivid geometric images; the work showcases dancers as priceless masterpieces—just like this season. You won't want to miss a bit of it.
