Performing Arts

McCaw Hall

Beatrice & Benedict

Kick off Seattle's citywide Shakespeare celebration with an all-new, one-of-a-kind theatrical hybrid. Overheard confessions, unfortunate reactions, tender reconciliations, and plenty of witty banter glide on a warm breeze of masterful orchestration. In this novel adaptation of Shakespeare's lively comedy Much Ado About Nothing, Hector Berlioz's exuberant opera score is paired with English text lifted directly from the Bard himself. The result: a crossover cultural event sure to have the whole town talking.

Note: Tickets will be available for pick up at will call the evening of the performance. No tickets will be mailed.

Date: Saturday, February 24

Time: 7:30 p.m.

Cost: $98 (orchestra with Gold Cast; $139 value)

Deadline: Friday, February 16

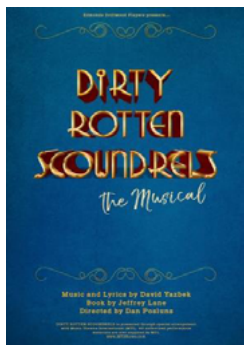

Location: McCaw Hall, 321 Mercer St., Seattle

Driftwood Players

Dirty Rotten Scoundrels

Lawrence makes his lavish living by talking rich ladies out of their money. Freddy more humbly swindles women by winking their compassion with fabricated stories about his grandmother's failing health.

After meeting, they attempt to work together, only to find that the small town on the French Riviera isn't big enough for the two of them. A hilarious battle ensues that will keep audiences laughing—and humming—to the end.

Note: Tickets will be available for pick up at will call the evening of the performance. No tickets will be mailed.

Date: Friday, April 27

Time: 8:00 p.m.

Cost: $22 (21 percent off value)

ACT Theatre

Ride the Cyclone (free parking)

At 8:17 p.m., the St. Cassian High School Chamber Choir boards the Cyclone roller coaster. At 8:19, the front axle breaks, sending them to their tragic demise. Trapped in fantastical carnival-like purgatory, the recently deceased teens discover a mechanical fortune teller, who invites them to tell their stories of life interrupted, with the promise of a prize like no other.

Making its West Coast premiere, Ride the Cyclone is “a delightfully weird and just plain delightful show,” according to The New York Times. Part comedy, part tragedy, and completely unexpected, this wonderfully weird story is at every turn satirical, macabre, creepy, campy, and hilarious.

Note: Your ticket includes a voucher for free parking. Tickets must be purchased in even numbers.

Date: Tuesday, May 15 Time: 7:30 p.m.

Cost: $64 ($71 value) Deadline: Sunday, April 15
