Murder for Two

Get ready for a musical comedy to die for. Everyone is a suspect in Murder for Two—a drop-dead funny murder-mystery musical with a twist: One actor investigates the crime; the other plays all the suspects—and they both play the piano. A zany blend of classic musical comedy and madcap mystery, this 90-minute whodunit is a highly theatrical duet loaded with killer laughs. Called “ingenious” by The New York Times, Murder for Two is the perfect blend of murder, music, and mayhem.

Financial Seminars

Generational Wealth

Avoiding the Three Reasons Families Fail to Transfer Generational Wealth

In 1776, Scottish economist and philosopher Adam Smith penned one of the most influential books on economics and wealth, The Wealth of Nations, in which he laments the failure of families to successfully preserve wealth: “Riches, in spite of the most violent regulations to prevent their dissipation, very seldom remain long in the same family.”

Michael Miller and Michael Quigley, from Capital Planning, will explore some of the root causes for the systemic failure that threatens generational wealth and what separates successful families from those that fail to preserve their wealth. A framework will be provided that you can adopt and customize for your own family, as well as valuable tips on how to apply some of the secrets to wealth preservation.

Capital Planning, LLC, is an SEC-registered investment adviser. The content of the seminar is not sponsored or endorsed by The Boeing Company and is intended for educational purposes.

Date: Thursday, March 30
