The Curious Incident of the Dog in the Night-Time

The winner of five 2015 Tony Awards, including Best Play, is coming to Seattle.

Fifteen-year-old Christopher is exceptionally intelligent but ill-equipped to interpret everyday life. When he falls under suspicion for killing his neighbor's dog, he sets out to identify the true culprit, which leads to an earthshattering discovery and a journey that will change his life forever.

Hailed as "One of the most fully immersive works ever to wallop Broadway" by The New York Times, this "dazzling" (Associated Press) adaptation is the Tony Award®-winning new play by Simon Stephens, adapted from Mark Haddon's best-selling novel and directed by Tony winner Marianne Elliott.

Driftwood Players

Lend Me a Tenor

In this hilariously fun Broadway sensation, a meek and unassuming opera house assistant must save the day when a series of screwball mishaps befall the Cleveland Grand Opera's biggest night.

In September 1934, the opera company is primed to welcome Tito Morelli, II Stupendo, the greatest tenor of his generation. The star arrives late, which is only the beginning of a hilarious series of mishaps and a frantic attempt to salvage the evening. Note: Tickets will be held at will call. Contact the event coordinator if someone other than the purchasing member will be picking up the tickets. Doors open at 7:00 p.m.

Performing Arts

5th Avenue Theatre 2017–2018 Season Tickets

Season tickets include free parking and all fees, plus free ticket exchange up to 24 hours in advance. Shows include:

Something Rotten!—Set in the 1590s, two brothers set out to write the world's first musical after a soothsayer foretells that the future of theater involves singing, dancing, and acting.

Ragtime—It's the turn of the century; everything is changing. Set in the volatile melting pot of New York City, three distinct American stories are woven together: an upper-class wife, a determined Jewish immigrant, and a daring, young Harlem musician are united by their desire and belief in a brighter tomorrow.

Irving Berlin's Holiday Inn—This wonderful new musical is inspired by the Oscar-winning film and features lavish sets and costumes, spectacular choreography, and 20 Irving Berlin songs. Jim leaves the bright lights of show business to settle down on a farm, but he finds the simple life is not as simple as he thought.

Intermission! The Musical!—Jerry Zucker, the master of wacky comedies including cinematic sensations Airplane! and The Naked Gun, directs this story of two dim-witted brothers who receive an e-mail claiming that money has been left to them by a relative they never knew. They each fall in love, get caught up in a military coup, join a band of revolutionaries, and have to save the country.

Ride the Cyclone—At 8:17 p.m., the Saint Cassian High School Chamber Choir boards the Cyclone roller coaster. At 8:19, they meet their tragic demise. Trapped in carnival-like purgatory, the recently deceased discover a mechanical fortune-teller who invites them to tell their stories of life interrupted, with the promise of a prize like no other.

Kiss Me, Kate—This Tony Award-winning masterpiece set the standard for great musicals and then broke the mold. This sparkly sensation is, at its core, a true battle of the sexes.

The Hunchback of Notre Dame—A retelling of Victor Hugo's masterpiece, this tale of love, faith, and prejudice will leave you spellbound. Its lush score features songs from the Disney animated feature and new music from legendary composers Alan Menken and Stephen Schwartz, unlike anything in musical theater today.

Note: Tickets must be purchased in even numbers.

Date: Tuesdays, September 26, 2017 to June 19, 2018

Time: 7:30 p.m.

Cost: $707 per season ticket (P1); $570 per season ticket (P2)

Deadline: Friday, June 30

Location: 5th Avenue Theatre, 1308 Fifth Ave., Seattle

Event Coordinator: Shannon Russell, 206-852-1666, shannon.m.russell@boeing.com

Village Theatre Season Tickets Issaquah or Everett

As season ticket subscribers, you'll enjoy reserved choice seating, complimentary ticket exchanges between Everett and Issaquah locations, and priority ticket ordering for friends and family. Shows include:

Into the Woods—Venture into this Tony and Drama Desk Award-winning musical where your favorite storybook characters collide and "happily ever after" is just the beginning. When the Baker and his wife learn they have been cursed by a witch, their quest to break the spell may have devastating results.

Disney's Newsies—Based on the true events of the newsboys' strike of 1899, this cult Disney movie-musical favorite takes life on stage when a crew of underdog newsies become unlikely heroes standing up for what's right. The Tony Award-winning and Grammy-nominated musical is full of classic Disney magic and a high-energy explosion of song, dance, and theatricality.

The Gin Game—Snappy dialogue and quick wit crackle in this Pulitzer Prize-winning play that was called, "the closest thing the theater offers to a duel at 10 paces" by The New York Times. On a lonely visitor's day at a home for the aged, Weller teaches Fonsia to play gin rummy. But as the two get to know each other, and Fonsia goes on an instant winning streak, the tension starts to build within their new friendship.

String—The Greek Fates, three sister-goddesses, are responsible for spinning, measuring, and snipping the String of Life. After falling out of favor with Zeus, they find themselves stuck in a drab modern skyscraper, left to live among the mortals. When the eldest falls in love with a mortal, everything changes.

Hairspray—Tracy Turnblad is a big girl with big hair and an even bigger dream: to dance her way onto national TV, dethrone the reigning teen queen, win the affections of the local heartthrob, and integrate a TV network—all without denting her 'do.

Note: See the BLNR website at <https://blnretirees.org> for ticket packages, dates, times, and cost. If renewing, contact the event coordinator to retain your current night and seats.

Performing Arts

Pacific Northwest Ballet Pictures at an Exhibition

This evening of ballet showcases dancers as priceless masterpieces. In PNB's premiere of George Balanchine's La Source, you'll smell the perfume in this sublime work choreographed to the music of Léo Delibes. Opus 19/The Dreamer, a darker work by Jerome Robbins set to the music of Prokofiev's first violin concerto, is an emotional and physical marathon with enormous rewards for audience and artist alike.

The final ballet, PNB's premiere of Alexei Ratmanský's Pictures at an Exhibition (music by Modest Mussorgsky), is paired with Wassily Kandinsky's vivid geometric images. Don't miss a bit of it.
