The Turn of the Screw

An unnamed governess travels to an isolated mansion, hired by a mysterious guardian to care for two orphaned children. What follows are a series of increasingly ominous encounters with “the others”—menacing spirits of previous staff. Featuring Benjamin Britten’s seductive score, The Turn of the Screw is a tantalizingly veiled portrait of psychological disintegration.

Attendees at either show can optionally purchase tickets to the Seattle Opera Halloween party, following the October 27 performance. Note: Tickets will be held at will call the evening of the performance. No tickets will be mailed. Party attendees must be 21 or over. Valid ID required.
