Retiree Meeting

Join us on March 16th, 2024, for our regular AIAA Retiree's hybrid on-line/in-person meeting at the Museum of Flight (MoF). Boeing retiree John Fredrickson, who, along with John Andrews wrote the book "Boeing Metamorphosis" will join us to describe some of the stories they collected for that book during their careers involved in Production Development and Planning. The book starts with a description of the Boeing days between Bill Boeing standing up the company to the early days of the 747 and everything in between. John can't cover everything in all those years but has some memorable stories to share.

Registration is required - Please click on this link to register, as registration is required whether attending via Zoom or in-person at the MoF. If planning to attend in-person in the South View Lounge, please register no later than Friday March 8th to avoid higher costs. All costs are visible during the short registration process. Zoom-only and speaker attendance remain free of charge.

We are looking forward to seeing you on Saturday March 16th, 2024. If you need help registering, please contact Karl at KarlR@SeaAIAAretirees.com
