Event Sponsor:	Dave Anderson, American Institute of Aeronautics and Astronautics

Please join us to hear Dan Dornseif talk about the development of the 777 and the program's "Working Together" culture. Dan is an author and professional pilot who has joined us several times at past meetings. In the last decade, he has written about Boeing products including the 727, 737, and the 757. Dan, in concert with Alan Mulally, has now published his latest book in that series exploring the 777. Over 100 interviews were conducted, along with many hours at the Boeing Archives spent in preparation for this historical endeavor.

Registration is required to attend either via Zoom or with brunch at the Museum of Flight. If you plan to attend at the Museum of Flight, please complete the required registration form by clicking on this link no later than November 13th, 2026, to accommodate our planning efforts.

Cheers and looking forward to seeing everyone!
