

Information on these events has been offered as a courtesy to our members and they are not sponsored by the Boeing Leadership Network.

A Christmas Carol

By Charles Dickens
Adapted by Gregory Falls
Directed by Julie Beckman

ACT – A Contemporary Theatre
A Christmas Carol

Charles Dickens' much-loved tale arrives December 7, as ACT Theatre's A Christmas Carol comes vividly to life with all of the spellbinding magic and festive spirit you love and remember.

On a snowy Christmas Eve brimming with memorable characters, ghostly apparitions and visits to the past, present and future, miserly Ebenezer Scrooge discovers the joy of charity and redemption.

Capture the magic of Dickens' Yuletide classic, proudly returning for the 46th year. Get your tickets now.

No one under the age of 5 will be permitted.

Dates/Times/Costs:

Friday, December 10	7:30 p.m.	Prime - $51	Standard - $44
Sunday, December 12	4:00 p.m.	Prime - $62	Standard - $54

Location: ACT Theatre, 700 Union Street, Seattle, 98101

Instructions: Contact Andrea White mailto: Andrea.G.White@boeing.com for ticket payment and distribution instructions.

COVID-19 Protocols

The 2022 season will be our first in-person season since the COVID pandemic. We return to the stage with our beloved holiday classic, A Christmas Carol, beginning December 7, 2021. ACT Theatre has joined Seattle area performing arts organizations including the Seattle Symphony, The 5th Avenue Theatre, Pacific Northwest Ballet, Seattle Opera, Seattle Rep and Village Theatre in requiring masking and vaccinations or negative COVID-19 testing to ensure a safe and successful return of Seattle area arts and live performances.

CANCELLATION POLICY Please note that all sales are final. Ticket purchases are nonrefundable.