

April 4th Topic: “Home Sweet Home” – Americans Want to Age in Place

As the pandemic thankfully wanes, we are starting to see its impact and long term repercussions on retirement planning and security.

One thing that hasn't changed is Americans overwhelming desire to age in place. The U.S. Centers for Disease Control defines “aging in place” as “the ability to live in one’s own home and community safely, independently, and comfortably, regardless of age, income, or ability level.”

Presented by Pacific Financial Solutions.
