WHAT IS WATCH U.S. FLY?

We are a community of advocates dedicated to standing up for public policies that advance and protect American aerospace, manufacturing, and national defense.

Why advocacy matters

- Policymakers in Washington, D.C. want to hear from you (their constituent)
- All actions – big and small – make a difference. Advocacy is a team sport!
- Sign up to receive updates and get involved on our advocacy website – WatchUsFly.com.
- Encourage friends and colleagues to sign up, too.
