Event	Ludovico Einaudi
Description	STG Presents Ludovico Einaudi at The Moore on October 7, 2017. Italian composer and pianist LUDOVICO EINAUDI has evolved into one of the most successful musicians in the world. His latest album, Elements topped classical charts in 42 countries across the globe. In the United Kingdom, it soared into the nation's mainstream album chart at #12, the first time in over a generation that a classical artist achieved such heights, surpassing releases by pop stars James Bay and Taylor Swift. The Guardian points out that if you haven't heard his music, "then it's probably because you don't know it's by Ludovico Einaudi." His compositions have formed the soundtrack of film and TV productions including The Intouchables and Black Swan, working with a diverse range of directors from acclaimed Canadian Xavier Dolan to Oscar winner Clint Eastwood. Brands such as NIKE and American Airlines have seamlessly sync'd his works in their advertising campaigns. Einaudi's unique contemporary musical style, informed by minimalist, ambient, world and rock music, has defied categories to become part of the fabric of popular culture, being heard in shows such as X-Factor, live performances by rapper/singer Nicki Minaj and remixes by post-rockers Mogwai. In his own concert appearances, LUDOVICO EINAUDI has likewise crossed genres as the first classical act to play the iTunes Festival on a line-up which included pop diva Lady Gaga, EDM superstar Avicii and GRAMMY-winning rapper Kendrick Lamar.

Event	Hudson
Description	STG Presents Hudson: Jack DeJohnette, Larry Grenadier, John Medeski, John Scofield at The Moore on October 19, 2017. Presented in partnership with Earshot Jazz Festival. HUDSON is an all-star group with drummer JACK DEJOHNETTE, bassist LARRY GRENADIER, keyboardist JOHN MEDESKI and guitarist JOHN SCOFIELD. The ensemble takes its name from the Hudson Valley area of New York State, where each of these musicians resides. The group originally came together in the fall of 2014 to perform at the Woodstock Jazz Festival. "There is a kindred spirit in the Hudson Valley," says DeJohnette, "and there are many musicians who live in the area who represent a variety of genres. In recent years, we have only been able to collaborate locally on occasion due to our individual musical obligations, but the fact remains that there's a common language that we all speak – something that emerges from our shared environment." In 2016, DeJohnette began looking for a project to commemorate his 75th birthday the following year. Fond memories of that performance had him seeking a reunion. In celebration of his milestone year, they'll kick off their North American tour in June 2017, followed by several large festival dates the entire month of October. With a magical recording in the can slated for release in 2017, all four are keen to share this inspired ensemble with the world. Encouraged by a fiery dynamic chemistry, the album features original compositions as well as collected repertoire of Hudson Valley materials from Bob Dylan's "Lay Lady Lay" and "A Hard Rain's Gonna Fall" to The Band's "Up On Cripple Creek," the Woodstock Festival's Joni Mitchell anthem and Jimi Hendrix's "Wait Until Tomorrow." This is a band with equal parts power and sublimity, pulling several musical genres into one interpretive statement of improvised jazz, punctuated with passion, skill and history.
