

SEATTLE SYMPHONY

The Seattle Symphony would like to wish the BLN and BLNR members a great summer. We appreciate your support this season and ask that you continue to use your discount promo code: FLYSSO for 15% Off Tickets and Pay No Handling Fees. I've included a few concerts with special promo codes where your FLYSSO code won't work. Enjoy!

SUMMER CONCERTS

THURSDAY, APRIL 24, AT 7:30PM
SATURDAY, APRIL 26, AT 8PM

Augustin Hadelich Plays Prokofiev

SYMPHONIC SERIES

Prepare to be swept off your feet as Dalia Stasevska returns to Seattle with a program celebrating the rhythms of Mexico and Argentina. The Night of the Maya pulsates with a huge percussion section, traditional instruments and a full orchestra. Originally composing for a 1939 film score, Revueltas created an orchestral suite to give this Music a life in the concert hall. Malambo illustrates the infectious rhythms of Argentinian gaucho dance traditions.

Vivaldi The Four Seasons

SYMPHONIC SERIES

Sunny Xia conductor
Helen Kim violin
David Gordon trumpet
Nola Richardson soprano

Sarah Larsen mezzo-soprano
Seattle Symphony Chorale
Seattle Symphony

We journey to Venice to hear Vivaldi's immortal work, The Four Seasons, brilliantly rendered for virtuoso violin: here, a showcase for associate Concert master Helen Kim. In a musical first, Vivaldi captured all the characteristic moments of each season — slippery ice, spring thaws, summer storms and glorious autumnal fruit.

Haydn The Creation

Symphonic Series

David Robertsson conductor
Susanna Phillips soprano
Nicholas Phan tenor
Eric Owens bass-baritone
Seattle Symphony Choral
Seattle Symphony

"In the Beginning...." This telling of Genesis is a choral gem of the Age of Enlightenment. Haydn draws out the story of the Creation and embroiders it with scintillating word-painting, depicting all the wonders of the first six days. Beginning in Chaos, we hear the birth of the universe, light dividing from dark, earth from water. Soon we are joined by all the charming and cheerful beasts that populate it!
